

Jasmine H. Low

Writer, Producer and Director

Sydney-based, Malaysia-born creative technologist Low picked up a prize from the Motion Picture Association International Script-to-Screen Workshop Malaysia for KURANG MANIS (Sugar, Less), a 45-minute documentary about six Malaysians who bare all about their hopes and dreams about New Malaysia and what it means to be amongst one in two Malaysians who are obese.

Due to several MCO lockdowns in Malaysia, shooting was not possible. In response to the moratorium, Low and co-producer Nikki Yeo have kicked off with The Kurang Manis Podcast on 9th February 2021, featuring an impressive list of interview guests: 2020 Australian of the Year Dr. James Muecke and The World Games Greatest Athlete of All Time (squash) Nicol David.
